

Index

- role of technology, 26, 41–42, 92–93, 111–133, 187–188
 - standards support, 93
 - storage issue, 14
 - transfer, 103–104
 - translation, 104–106
 - using, 100–101
- Information gatekeepers, 78–79
- Information infrastructure, 91–92, 109, 130–131
- Information management, multimedia production company example, 5–6. See also Knowledge management
- Infrastructure, information, 91–92, 109, 130–131
- Insourced business model, 52, 53
- Instrumental understanding:
 - in conceptual hierarchy, 11
 - defined, 10
 - examples in medicine, 11–12
 - in life insurance sales example, 12
- Intellectual capital:
 - customer component, 17, 19
 - human component, 17, 19
 - overview, 16–17
 - role of knowledge workers, 58–60
 - structural component, 17, 19
- Intellectual property:
 - as capital component, 17
 - legal issues, 31, 187
 - life cycle issues, 90
- Intelligent agents, 123, 145
- Interface tools, 129
-
- K
- KM. See Knowledge management
- Knowing vs. doing, 69
- Knowledge:
 - in conceptual hierarchy, 11
 - defined, 10
 - examples in medicine, 11–12
 - explicit, 18
 - and human capital, 17–18
 - implicit, 18
 - vs. information or data, 10–13
 - in life insurance sales example, 12
 - tacit, 17–18
- Knowledge analysts, 43
- Knowledge audits, 48, 85, 87
- Knowledge engineers, 43, 75
- Knowledge management:
 - assessing value, 27–28
 - benefits, 25
 - budgeting for, 141
 - business models and, 51–54
 - CGF content management strategy, 135–138
 - confusion over use of term, 8
 - cost requirements, 33
 - defined, 8–9
 - employee relationship management, 63–66
 - establishing value, 163–169
 - evaluating implementation, 182–183
 - fact finding phase, 178–181
 - financial aspects, 141, 179–180, 186–187
 - in Fortune 1000 companies, 7
 - future considerations, 189–190
 - Healthcare Productions example, 20, 24–25
 - in history, 1–3
 - implementation phases, 176–183
 - incremental value of information, 169–170